CebuDiver.com is looking for contributing writers. We don't care about grammar or syntax or some such inanity. What we do care about are your personal stories. Send us a paragraph, a sentence, or your best ten fragments in bullet points. What's in it for you? Why, a whole lot of lovin', of course. Plus a mighty mean sticker to add to your collection. A word of caution: CebuDiver.com does not tolerate plagiarism in any form. This website is protected by CopyScape.com. We verify all submissions through CopyScape. If you wish to quote from certain online resources, please always cite your source. Thank you.
